er's occupation, having in the arrangement of drawing rooms with fire places; dining

PACIFIC NEWS.

Thursday, September 13, 1849.

Q—We are under the necessity of again issuing our paper without the Convention Report—as the friend who so kindly consented to take charge of the package, still persists in suppressing the same. Such conduct may be fun to him, but it is quite a different matter with the public and ourselves. Had the package been delivered promptly, we could have presented our readers with a full report of the doings of the Convention on Saturday morning of last week.—We feel deeply the disappointment, but know of no remedy but patience and resignation.

EXTRA EDITION.—In order to accommodate those who were unable to obtain the first number of the Pacific News, containing the Laws of California, we have printed a few extra copies, which may be obtained on application at this office.

HORTICULTURE.—It is a matter of great astonishment to all strangers arriving in California, that there exists here in the vicinity of a flourishing city an utter destitution of all garden culture, and especially of those culinary vegetables so necessary to the comfort and health of its inhabitants. At this time there is not in the vicinity of the city one acre of cultivated ground devoted to this object, while on the other hand the few vegetables brought to our markets command such exorbitant prices, that a much larger portion of gold might be obtained from the earth by the culture of esculent vegetables than the average obtained by digging for gold at the Mines. In fact it may be deemed an absolute certainty that some scores of the persons now idle or engaged in branches of business that have become overdone and stagnant, might realize ample fortunes by the healthy occupation of Horticulture, a business which affords immediate returns to those who engage in it. We might also refer to Fruits, and to the total deficiency of Orchards in our vicinity from which this City might be amply supplied, in lieu of the present dependence for the paltry quantities we receive on the distant Missions. A few bushels of indifferent Pears and Apples, bruised by the transportation from distant towns, are all that our markets have been favored with, for not a tree of even these commonest fruits is to be found adjacent to our city. As to Peaches, Plums, Cherries, Grapes, and other fine fruits, we should absolutely forget that any such existed, were it not that some of these are to be met with in a dry state.—All these varieties of fruits could be successfully cultivated here, and would serve greatly to increase the comforts of a California home. The smaller fruits, such as the strawberry, raspberry, blackberry and currant, are found growing naturally in different sections of the country, thus affording proof of the appropriateness of the climate to the growth of the finer varieties so generally cultivated in the Atlantic states and in Europe. We have been hitherto pressing onward in the erection of stores and dwellings for all branches of mercantile business, in order that there might be ample room for the multitude arriving and for the storage of all merchandise. These points seem now to have been attained, or at least sufficiently so for the present, and we may now consequently spare the time for some attention to the gratifications and comforts of life.

Q—We understand that the U. S. Ship Ohio will leave San Francisco for the States on Saturday next, under the command of Capt. C. R. Stribbling, U. S. N. An opportunity is thus afforded of sending gold dust or bullion. The Ohio will touch at Valparaiso.

Ordinance for Revenue.

To J. R. CURTIS, Esq., Sub-Prefect.

The undersigned, citizens of the town of San Francisco, regarding the ordinance of the Town Council, passed August 27th, 1849, for raising revenue, as contrary to the laws now in force, unconstitutional, unequal, unjust, and oppressive, respectfully request you to withhold from said ordinance your sanction, and to veto the same.

WARD, MERSCH & Co,
LOOMIS & GIBBS,
EARL & MACKINTOSH,
WM. FELL & Co,
WM. LADD,
BENJ. REYNOLDS, and 300 others.

Argument of H. T. Kyle, Counsel for Petitioners:

SIR:—I hold in my hand a Petition addressed to you as Sub-Prefect, signed by at least two-thirds of the citizens of San Francisco, composing the different classes comprehended by the Ordinance for Revenue, passed by the Town Council, August 27th, 1849.

You will discover from the tenor of the petition itself, the object of the petitioners. They ask you, as the holder in your hands of the balance of legislative power to refuse to said Revenue Ordinance your sanction and thereby to veto the operation of the same.

And why do these petitioners make this request? Simply because the ordinance in their opinion is unjust, unequal and oppressive. It is a fundamental principle in all well appointed governments that the burdens imposed by law should fall equally on all its citizens; that each citizen should bear, in proportion to his means, an equal or proportionate quota of the expenses of the government, and that each citizen should enjoy equal privileges and equal protection of person and property. Now sir, we will test the equality of this law, or Ordinance for Revenue, by this principle.

The ordinance provides, among other things, that auctioneers shall pay on the amount of sales of personal property one per cent, and on sales of real estate, one half of one per cent, to the Treasurer.—This, sir, exhibits in the first article of the ordinance, inequality in levying a duty of one per cent on sales of personal property brought to this port for the convenience and general consumption of the country, to say nothing about the hardship imposed on the shipper in the payment of so large an amount of his profits towards the support of the town and its municipal regulations, when perhaps in nine cases out of ten he receives no earthly advantage in return, except the privilege of receiving the balance due him on his cargo after all the necessary deductions are made, in the way of commissions, duties, &c. On the other hand one half of one per cent is levied as a duty on all sales of real estate at public auction. Why is this difference made in the ordinance? How comes it, that the article of most value in the market of San Francisco pays the smallest duty? Why bolster up with the fostering care of the fathers of the town an interest that is already bloated and overgrown, and destroy by the same legislation, the commerce and industry of the country, and of the town in particular, by putting clogs upon it, and surrounding it with penalties? Why not levy the same duties on the sales of real estate by auction, as those on personal goods and chattels? If the Council have the right to levy a duty at all, on either, or on both of those commodities, they certainly have the right to equalize those duties. We think, sir, without putting any more queries on this branch of the ordinance, it is sufficiently clear to minds of ordinary perception that, as between the parties affected, it is both unequal, unjust and oppressive.

Again, the ordinance provides that "all merchants and traders in provisions, merchandise, and all other articles of trade, manufacture, or commerce, in the town of San Francisco, &c., shall be required to take from the Comptroller a license to carry on his business, &c., and pay if a wholesale dealer, one hundred dollars per quarter; if a retail dealer, seventy-five dollars per quarter, to the Treasurer of the town, &c., or in default to suffer a penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars for each day's neglect." Does not this part of the ordinance savor of inequality? By what precedent does this Ordinance for Revenue strive to compel the man with a capital of five hundred, one thousand, or even five thousand dollars, to pay the same amount for a license to exercise his vocation, as his neighbor who is doing business on a capital of fifty, one hundred or five hundred thousand dollars? Surely this ordinance is the result of chance, and not the product of cool and deliberate investigation, otherwise the conception would certainly have brought forth a different issue. Under this clause of the ordinance, mechanics and all others carrying on the business of manufacturing are included; and if they attempt to dispose of their wares and merchandise after changing the raw material by their labor into articles of use and service, without a license, they are subjected to the penalties imposed on merchants and traders. This feature of the ordinance, in levying a tax (under the name of a license) on the labor and industry of the Town, is so glaringly unjust and so contrary to all laws regulating taxation, that we trust the mere statement of the fact will be sufficient to satisfy your mind that it is unequal, unjust and oppressive. The fourth article of the ordinance appears to be made for the sole benefit of hawkers and pedlars, certainly a very ancient calling in other parts of the world, and for ought we know, a very honorable one. Its great antiquity, if nothing else, ought to preserve it from utter annihilation, even in the streets of San Francisco. This article requires hawkers and pedlars to pay a license of fifty dollars per month for the poor privilege of selling their merchandise in the streets, and in default of this license, (if he or they are caught in the street offering anything for sale,) he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, forfeit for the benefit of the people of San Francisco, all goods, wares, merchandise, provisions or clothing found in his or their possession at the time of his or their arrest. This article in the ordinance is so repugnant to all our notions of right and wrong, so utterly at variance with every principle of justice, and all the nobler sentiments and finer feelings of the human heart, that it is impossible to reason on the subject. The eighth article in addition to the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, provides "excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted." It strikes me the penalty attached in this article is forbidden by the article quoted from the Constitution. The idea of forfeiting the goods and chattels found on the persons of hawkers and pedlars, for the benefit of the people of the town of San Francisco, if meant literally, is certainly, sui generis. The same objection, that there is no discrimination made in the amount of capital employed, or the amount of business done by individuals and firms, applies also to the balance of the ordinance. The wholesale classification of the Council, without reference to the amount of interest each individual or firm has at stake, renders the ordinance unequal in its assessments, unjust in its collections, and exceedingly oppressive in its penalties and in its forfeitures.

Office of the Sub-Prefect.
San Francisco, Sept. 10, 1849.
H. T. Kyle, Esq., Counsel of the Petitioners.

DEAR SIR:—A document signed by some 300 citizens—merchants, traders and others—of San Francisco, praying me to withhold my official sanction to an ordinance passed by the Ayuntamiento on the 27th August, entitled an "Ordinance for Revenue," accompanied by your argument as Counsel for the petitioners has been received and duly considered.

In reply, I have to say, that after an attentive examination of the laws of California, prescribing the power of the Sub-Prefect in a matter like that in question, I am involved in great doubt with regard to the authority vested in me touching this peculiar case. It is true that Article 10th provides, that "The Ayuntamiento, under subject to the Sub-Prefect, shall have charge" &c. &c. Whether this clause invests me with a legal right to exercise the veto power, is a subject which requires more time for consideration than I have yet been able to give it. I am free to say, however, that the general features of the ordinance in question, do not meet with my approval, and I have not a doubt that the Ayuntamiento after more mature consideration will soalter and amend the "Ordinance for Revenue" as to meet the entire approval of the citizens of San Francisco.

With great respect,
I have the honor to be
Your ob't serv't.
JOS. R. CURTIS, Sub-Prefect.

[From the N. Y. Tribune for California.]
Affairs on the Atlantic Side.

After the chapter of disasters in all parts of the United States, which we were called upon to record in our last number, the present condition of our country, in spite of the Cholera among us, and its severe ravages in the Mississippi Valley, is more tranquil and devoid of exciting interest. Within the past three or four weeks no event of magnitude as regards the public welfare, has transpired. The cities of St. Louis, Milwaukee and Albany, which have suffered greatly by fire, are rising from their ashes and will soon show no trace of their loss. In New Orleans, the unparalleled overflow of the Mississippi through crevasses in the levee, has been finally checked, and the city which was more than half submerged, stands upon dry ground.

In all parts of the country the harvest promises to be abundant. The spring was unusually cold and backward, with heavy rains, but since the beginning of this month the weather has been warm and dry, and the hay crop is everywhere very large.—Wheat, rye and oats are ripening to a rich harvest, and corn, only, threatens to fall short of its accustomed yield. The rain and cold weather of May have retarded its growth very materially. During the past week the heat has been greater than at any time, in the month of June, for ten years. The highest temperature in this city was 97 deg., in Philadelphia 101 deg., and throughout New England from 76 to 98 deg. Many persons died from laboring while exposed to the heat of the sun, but the degree of mortality among the Cholera cases does not appear to have been very materially increased.

This epidemic now prevails to some extent through all the Northern and Eastern states, and rages with great violence on the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers. In St. Louis and Cincinnati it was, at the last accounts, more fatal than ever. In the former city, which contains some sixty thousand inhabitants, the number of deaths daily by the epidemic exceeds one hundred; at Cincinnati, which has one hundred thousand inhabitants, there were 78 deaths on the 24th. In this city, during the last week, there were 243 cases and 110 deaths, which is but a slight increase upon the week previous.

The fever of emigration has been somewhat revived among us of late by the return of miners and traders who have satisfied their thirst for gold, and by the large consignments of the precious metal, which have recently reached us. The letters of the first squadron of emigrants from this city are beginning to pour in, all confirming our previous advices concerning the abundance of gold, though differing widely as to the degree of felicity enjoyed in digging for it. The result is, however, that the richness of the California placers has become a settled fact; the most incredulous are now the most believing. The rumored differences between the native and foreign miners excite some apprehensions. The general opinion, based upon the character of private advices, rather than any official dispatches which have transpired, forebodes serious trouble before the end of the season, unless the tide of emigration by sea, at this time, probably, beginning to flow in upon San Francisco, should operate favorably to the preservation of order.

At Washington a few appointments of Ministers and Consuls abroad have been made, but otherwise our political world is without an event except the opening of Col. Benton's campaign in Missouri. That portion of the Loco-Foco party which supports Slavery are making a strong effort to cast Col. B. from his seat in the U. S. Senate. He has taken the stump in his own defence and will address the people throughout the State. He takes the strongest ground against the extension of Slavery into New Mexico and California, and attacks the doctrines of Mr. Calhoun and his followers with as much vigor as bitterness. There is no reason to fear that he will not be returned to the Senate.

The Indians on the frontiers of Texas, and in the northern provinces of Mexico, are committing all kinds of outrages upon the inhabitants and the companies of emigrants who have taken the Southern overland routes to California. The savages are of the Camanche tribe, perhaps the most powerful and warlike on the continent, and long addicted to setting at defiance the people and troops of Mexico. They have never before ventured upon attacking citizens of the United States. Their present foray extended through the lower part of the Rio Grande valley, and was accompanied by the usual slaughter of the inhabitants. The Mexican commander at Matamoros was applied to for a corps of dragoons, the U. S. garrisons in the vicinity happening to be small and composed of infantry, but the authorities of the district would not consent that the Mexicans should cross the frontier. Orders have been issued from Washington to dispatch a strong force of heavy cavalry to teach the Camanches a less ferocious behavior.

In Canada, nothing special has happened except it be a battle in the Montreal City Council. One member, in a speech, averred that in three months they would be all Americans. Whereupon another member crossed over and knocked him down. This was followed by a variety of hostile demonstrations, and finally the Council broke up in order to avoid a general melee. With regard to the country generally there is no doubt, we think, that the Annexation party is gaining ground, though their opponents sturdily deny it.

[Reported for the Pacific News.]
The Case of Joseph Daniel.

The trial of Joseph Daniel, indicted for the murder of Peter Petit, took place in this city, on the 6th inst. before Hon. JOHN W. GEARY, First Alcalde, and resulted in a verdict of guilty. The circumstances attending the death of Petit were published at the time. It appears that the deceased and Daniel were Frenchmen who had been on intimate terms with each other; that on the 20th of August last both were seen hunting in the vicinity of the Mission, and that shortly afterwards Petit was found about a mile and a half from this city shot through the head in such a manner as left no doubt that the shot was fired with a design to murder him. He was brought to this city, where he lingered until the following day, and expired. Daniel, who had been last seen in his company, was immediately arrested, and on searching him, the keys, gold and other valuables of the deceased were found in his possession. On these facts Daniel was indicted for murder in the first degree, and on the 6th inst. was tried and convicted, the jury being absent but half an hour in deliberating on their verdict. Though the evidence against Daniel was entirely circumstantial, its character was such as left no doubt on the minds of those who heard it, of the justice of the verdict. The prosecution was conducted by J. B. HART, Esq., District Attorney. After the verdict of the jury, the prisoner's counsel asked for an arrest of judgment for a few days, to prepare a bill of exceptions to the proceedings, which was granted.

On Tuesday last the case again came up before the Alcalde. The prisoner's counsel moved:—

1st. To annul the whole proceedings of the trial on the ground of a want of jurisdiction in the court to try capital offences, and

2d. In case of a refusal to grant the first motion, demanded a new trial for his client, on the ground of irregularity in the proceedings by which the prisoner was convicted.

These points were argued at length by the prisoner's counsel. He was replied to by J. B. HART, Esq., District Attorney, on the part of the Government.

Judge GEARY deferred a decision on the points argued by counsel, and intimated that he would at a future day give his decision in writing.

CAUTION.—Whereas, one J. A. Sutter has published a notice, in which he claims title to the land on the east bank of the Sacramento river, between the Feather river and the American Fork, I hereby notify the public that I am the only legal owner of the said land, under a warranty deed from J. A. Sutter himself, dated Aug. 10, 1848; and I therefore caution all persons that no legal title can be acquired to the same, or to any portion thereof, except through me. Justice to myself requires me to add that I shall hold the said J. A. Sutter legally responsible, both for the libel on my character, and the slander of my title, which his notice contains; and that if its publication is the result of a conspiracy to defraud me of my property, I shall take care that the offenders be brought to justice as soon as a criminal court before which they can be tried, is legally organized in this territory.

Any person desiring to satisfy himself of my title to the above land, is invited to call on S. Brannan & Co., at Sacramento City, or on the undersigned, at the counting room of E. Mickle & Co., Clay street wharf, San Francisco. HIRAM GRIMES.

NOTICE TO SQUATTERS.—The undersigned begs leave to caution the public in general against squatting upon his farms or ranchos, as follows: One farm on the river Sacramento, extending to the mouth of Feather river and American Fork, known as Rancho del Passo.

Also, two ranchos on the San Joaquin river; one of 3 leagues, granted to Don Hernandez by Gov. Micheltoreno, and adjoining the same; being one undivided half of 3 leagues granted by Gov. Micheltoreno to Balentine Higuera, near the Pueblo pass.

All persons are hereby notified to abstain from taking possession of any portion thereof, at the peril of being proceeded against according to law.

TOWN OF BOSTON.—Lots at the town of Boston, beautifully situated at the junction of the American Fork and Sacramento rivers, are now offered for sale. The town of Boston is only a few hundred yards above Sutter's Embarcadero, on the north side of the American Fork, and in the immediate vicinity of the gold mines, and from its situation possesses superior advantages for business purposes. The land which forms the site of the town is twelve feet above the highest water mark, and the river is twenty-three feet in depth at the banks. It is believed that no place offers greater inducements for investments than this town, as in addition to the above mentioned advantages it has a fine climate, good soil, with an abundance of excellent water, and is free from inundation at all seasons. The town has been surveyed by Mr. J. Halls, and laid out in a convenient manner, and a plan of it can be seen, and any other information, relating to it obtained on application to HIRAM GRIMES, s1 tf or, J. HALLS.

NEW YORK OF THE PACIFIC.—The

City of New York, of the Pacific, situated at the head of ship navigation upon the bay of Suisun at its junction with the rivers Sacramento and San Joaquin, has been most accurately surveyed by Captain R. P. Hammond, U. S. A., and laid out in the most beautiful and convenient manner, and maps have been prepared by E. H. Rowe, Esq., engineer and land surveyor, pointing out clearly each and every lot within the surveyed limits of the city, and the proprietors now offer them for sale to the public. Along the entire water front of the city, a public street is laid out one hundred and fifty feet in width, beyond which no ground will ever be sold, and the proprietors therefore guarantee to the purchasers of all lots fronting on Water street, that no building shall ever be erected between their purchase and the water. There is no point along the entire water front of the city at which vessels of the largest class cannot lay within thirty feet of the bank of the river, and there are but few points where a large class of vessels cannot come immediately to the bank and discharge their cargoes, and at all points where this cannot be done, wharves will be built by the proprietors as soon as materials for building can be procured. The centre street of the city running North and South is one hundred feet in width, and all the other streets seventy-five feet; the lots are fifty feet front, by one hundred deep, and there is not a lot within the survey unfit for building purposes.

There are three public squares laid out within the survey, which will be given to the city, and the proceeds of the sales of all the lots fronting on the squares will be appropriated to the erection of public buildings. The titles to this property are perfect and complete in every particular.

There will be established immediately at the city a record office in charge of a competent official person authorized to take acknowledgements and record deeds, and where the original title deed to this property will be recorded, and where it is desired that all deeds for lots purchased should be immediately recorded.

The advantages of the location of this city over any other above San Francisco, are too well known to all who have either passed up the river Sacramento or San Joaquin to require any comment from the proprietors; but to all persons who have not had the opportunity to examine the site, we say that there is not in all California a point combining so many advantages for business purposes, with the advantages of a fine, healthy climate, dry soil, free from inundation, at every point, throughout the year, a superior harbor for vessels of the largest class, and an abundant supply of pure water at all seasons. To these advantages, we will add that permanent arrangements have been made for two steamers to commence running in all the month of August daily from San Francisco to the new city; and also two steamers of very light draught of water with tow boats prepared to navigate the Sacramento and San Joaquin, and their tributaries, from New York, below which they will not come. For lots or any information connected with the city of New York of the Pacific, apply at the office of the proprietors in Portsmouth square, San Francisco, and at the city of New York.
